Learning outcomes

Pupils will:

- > be prepared to react to different kinds of first aid situations
- > have increased confidence about whether to give first aid treatment, get help or call 999
- > understand the value and relevance of learning first aid
- > know what first aid encompasses.

✂ Cut around edge to separate

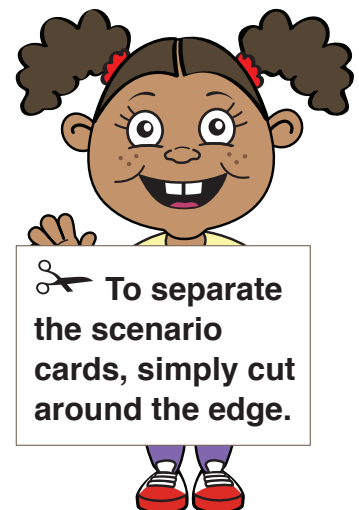

1. Kelly has been burned by a firework and her hand hurts.

Ali: We can't help – we don't have a first aid kit.

Grace: We should call 999 first.

Callum: We don't need a first aid kit – we can help.

Callum: What do you think?

2. Dan has fallen down a steep slope and is hurt.

First aid is only for experts – we shouldn't try to help.

Grace

We should do what we can to help.

Ali

We might make things worse and get in trouble.

3. These children are going to learn about first aid.

Everyone should learn first aid because loads of people have accidents.

Ali

We don't need to learn first aid because we can just call an ambulance.

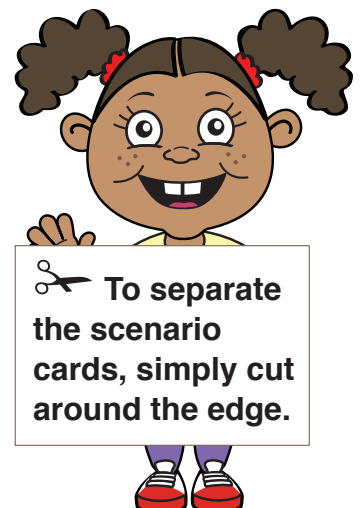

Grace

First aid is only for grown ups.

4. Dan has a nose bleed.

Blood! I don't know what to do!

Ali

Don't panic! It's easier to help if you're calm.

Callum

I think we should leave him alone until an expert comes along.

Grace

5. Kelly has cut her finger with a knife.

I'm not a first aider.

Ali

Don't help someone who is bleeding – you might catch something.

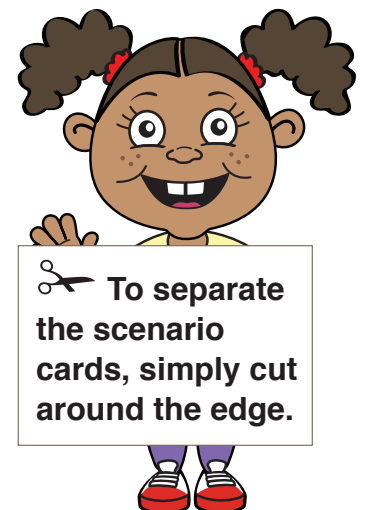

Grace

Let's call 999 – it's better than doing nothing

6. Grace has had an accident and her leg is bleeding.

You should only help if you're sure you won't hurt yourself.

You should rush over to them straight away and see how you can help.

You should run away before you get hurt too.
