Resource 1: Lockdown Scenarios

Scenario 1

When it was announced that the country was going into lockdown, Stacey's older cousin came to stay at her house with the rest of her family. He lived in a shared house and couldn't afford the rent, so everyone thought it would be better for him to be with them. At first Stacey was pleased; she looked up to her cousin and he made her laugh. But as the time went on, Stacey started to feel unsettled around him. She felt like he was looking at her strangely across the dinner table, and always seemed to end up sitting next to her on the sofa and pushing really close against her, which made her feel uncomfortable. One evening he came into her room after everyone else was asleep and climbed into her bed...

The next morning, he acted like everything was normal, and a few days' later lockdown lifted and he went back to his house. Stacey hasn't told anyone what happened that night and isn't sure what her parents will say. She's starting to wonder if maybe it was a dream and didn't happen at all?

Scenario 2

Over the summer, Ajay started receiving some really aggressive messages online. They were making offensive comments about where he is from and commenting on the colour of his skin. Someone set up a website dedicated to making jokes about him called 'We hate Ajay' and has posted loads of photos of him with offensive language scribbled all over them. People have been commenting on them anonymously and he's feeling really humiliated and angry. He's pretty sure it's someone from school who must have started it, but he doesn't know who. Now he's back at school it seems like everyone is talking behind his back and laughing at him. Yesterday, there was a death threat left in his locker. He's feeling really afraid and doesn't know how to deal with the situation without looking weak or making everything worse.

Scenario 3

Ryan had been in a relationship with Dina for a few months before lockdown happened. At first it was fine because they were still messaging and face-timing loads. But as time went on, Dina started accusing Ryan of not having any time for her, ignoring her messages and taking ages to reply. Ryan didn't think that was fair; he usually only left it for a few minutes, and sometimes he couldn't reply straight away because he was doing online lessons. When he tried to explain, Dina started saying nasty things about him and criticising everything about him, saying he was a lousy boyfriend and she deserved better. A few weeks later, she posted on her social media that she suspected he was cheating on her. Loads of their friends got involved and some people have fallen out with Ryan about it, even though it wasn't true. When Ryan met up with her to talk it through, she called him a liar and slapped him, leaving a mark. He wants to tell his friend about what is going on but is worried he will laugh at him for being hit by a girl, and maybe everyone has already taken Dina's side anyway?
